

NEWSLETTER

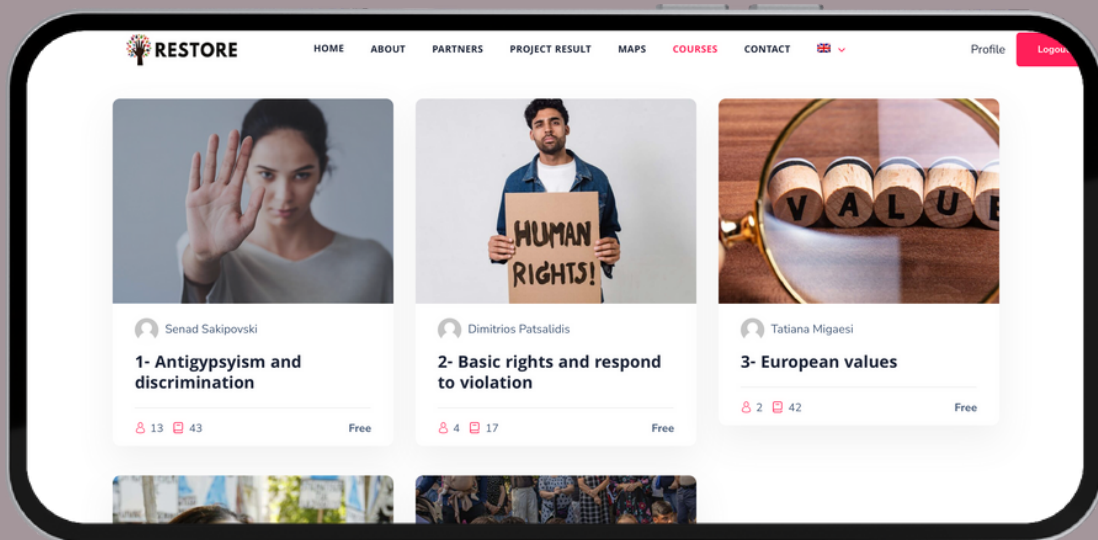

Design and delivery of capacity building program for OER tailored to the civic skills gaps of Roma adults: "Social pathways for active civic participation of Roma adults in the EU"

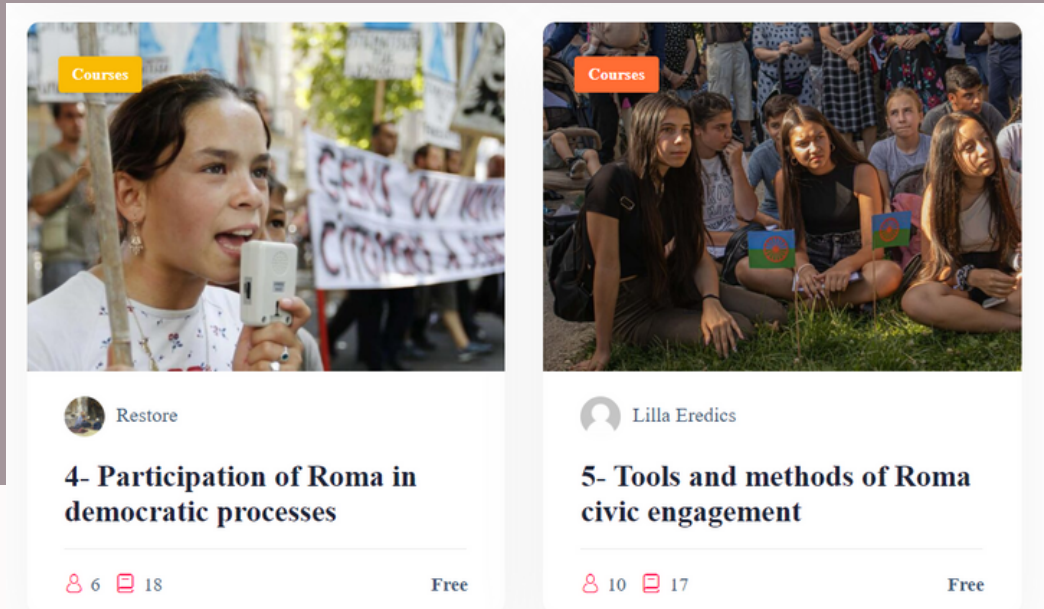

MODULES FOR LEARNING

Review

The training material is intended to cover the learning objectives and be used as a self-study material for individuals who want to master the skills needed for civic engagement.

NEWSLETTER

Course highlights

Uncover Discrimination:

Explore the roots of discrimination with our Anti-Gypsy module.

Strengthen yourself:

Learn to assert your rights with our Basic Rights module.

Embrace European values:

Discover the essence of European values in our society.

Shape your community:

drive change through our Roma participation module.

Tools for influence:

Equip yourself for active citizen participation.

You can register to access the training material on the project website by following the link:

<https://www.therestoreproject.eu/courses/>

